

YOLO COUNTY HISTORICAL COLLECTION CURATOR'S REPORT

MARCH 2022

NEW ACQUISITIONS TO HISTORICAL COLLECTION

We are excited to announce the donation of a silver tea set once owned by teacher and principal Charles Edward Dingle. The tea service was a gift to Mr. Dingle and has the engraving "C.E. Dingle from his fellow teachers, on November 21st, 1890. Collections Revealed video is HERE.

EXHIBITIONS

On-view at the Gibson House and Property March 16th through June 24th is Side-By-Side: Historic and Contemporary Ceramics at the Gibson House and Property. Open to the public Thursdays 2:30pm to 5:00pm and select Saturdays at 512 Gibson Road in Woodland.

Exhibition guide is available online HERE.
Exhibition videos are available online HERE.

Fall 2022

History of Quilts and Textile Arts in the Modern Age

Spring 2023

Japanese Internment and Yolo County: Legacy of the Issei

SIDE-BY-SIDE: HISTORIC AND CONTEMPORARY CERAMICS EXHIBITION OPENING

PHOTOGRAPHS

The Yolo County Archives recently received a transfer of fifteen boxes of photographs from the Yolo County Historical Collection. This collection covers a wide range of locations across Yolo County and a variety of topics, such as farming and agriculture, education, businesses and homes, groups and individuals, events, and more. As they begin the long process of cataloging this large and complex collection and scanning the photos, the images will eventually be made available on our database HERE.

PROGRAMMING

Salon Series: Side by Side: Back to Back, Thursday, June 16, 5:30PM Museum Curator Iulia Bodeanu and Ceramic Artist Linda Fitz Gibbon will discuss how ceramics of the past and present come together in dialogue in the Side-by-Side: Historic and Contemporary Ceramics exhibition at the Gibson House. The program will look at how Fitz Gibbon's artwork addresses themes of feminism, domesticity, and motherhood in the sculptural interpretation and inspiration of antique pottery forms.