OFF - SITE EXHIBITIONS - WEST SAC

The Yolo County Historical Collection in partnership with and the West Sacramento Branch of the Yolo County Library and the West Sacramento Historical Society presents an exhibition on the first Native American Veterans of Foreign Affairs Hall, located in West Sacramento. The VFW Hall was the site of a cultural resurgence for Northern California Native American tribes after WWII. The photo above is from a dance performance at the Bryte VFW in 1955. The exhibition will be on display at The Arthur F. Turner Library, 1212 Merkeley Ave. in West Sacramento from December 2021 through June 2022.

CALL FOR DOCENTS AND INTERNS

The Historical Collection and the Gibson House and Property are excited to announce a call for volunteers and docents to help digitize the collection and facilitate the visitor experience. Those interested in History, Art, and Agriculture will be offered 20 hours of training and will help with museum open hours. Those with a background or interest in photography are encouraged to apply for an internship to assist in digitizing the collection. To apply please email iulia.bodeanu@yolocounty.org.
