

The Yolo County Historical Collection strives to create diverse exhibitions that show the history of all Yolo County residents. The goal of the Picture Yourself in Yolo County project is to work towards the telling of a more inclusive history through community collaboration. If you want to see yourself in the Gibson House, ask the docent or your local Yolo County Library branch for the Picture Yourself in Yolo County activity.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Attach a painting, drawing, or photograph of yourself, or your family to the template handout.*
2. If you want your portrait returned to you, write your name and address on the back. All others will leave the Yolo County Historical Collection after the exhibition ends.
3. Return the template to the Gibson House Museum, Via the email below, or the Davis, Yolo, and West Sacramento Branches of the Yolo County Library to be hung in the Gibson House as a part of this exhibition.
4. If you are under 18, parental permission is required for all photographic submissions.

*By submitting your template, you grant Yolo County Library and the Yolo County Historical Collection permission to post it publicly in the Gibson House and on our website and social media.
